

Keep on Truckin' Actually, NOT a Grateful Dead tribute workshop...songs like these focus on traveling: "Going to Boston," "Rosin the Beau," "Going Down to Cairo," "Road to Lisdoonvarna," etc.

LEVEL II

Show me the Money We'll be raking in the big bucks with tunes like these: "Three Thin Dimes," "New Five Cent Piece," and "Gimme Back my Fifteen Cents" and "Boys, my Money's all gone!"

LEVEL III

Living and Dying in Three Quarter Time (Name that Jimmie Buffet tune!) This workshop has nothing to do with Margaritaville...rather we'll look at tunes in three-quarter time. You'll enjoy tunes like "Planxty Fannie Powers," "Rosin the Beau," "The Blackest Crow," "Skye Boat Song," "Si Beag Si Mor" in this class.

LEVEL II

Some of my Favorite Dates! Do you remember in the film, "Miss Congeniality," when the contender for the Miss America title was asked simply, "What would you consider your favorite date?" Her ditsy response, "April 14." Well, every time I call for one of these tunes, I think of that movie. That said, we'll play "Eighth of January," "Camp Meeting on the Fourth of July," also "Year of Jubilo," and "Sweet Hour of Prayer" (not really dates, but very "timely").

LEVEL II

Gal-a-palooza! If you like songs about Gals, then this is your class! How about "Charleston Gals," "Buffalo Gal," "Yella Gals," or "Westfork Gals?" Won't you come out tonight and dance by the light of the moon!

LEVEL II

There's no place like home! Ah, Dorothy, you can say that again! Let's learn a few "no place like home" songs like "My Old Kentucky Home," "Going Home," "Sweet Sunny South," and, of course, "Home Sweet Home."

LEVEL II

Songs with the funniest titles These titles crack me up! "Johnny don't get Drunk" "Chickens Three Feet High," "Dogs in the Dishes," "Grasshopper Sittin' on a Sweet Potato Vine," "Nail that Catfish to a tree," "Sally Sapped me with a Flounder." We'll try to keep a straight face when we play a few of these.

LEVEL III

West of the Mississippi Here are a few fiddle tunes I learned from two fiddlers out of Kansas and East Texas. I like the tunes and you will, too! Have you ever heard of these? "Git Ur Boots," "Mace Bell's Civil War March," or "Black Jack Grove?" Neither had I before meeting Tricia Spencer and Howard Rains!

LEVEL II

Caught in a Jam??? Consider this session your guide for jam survival...plus it will be fun!
LEVEL II

All Girl Revue! Now that I have your attention...join me for a few tunes, such as: "Julianne Johnson," "Down by the Sally Gardens," "Waiting for Nancy," and "Sadie at the Back Door."
LEVEL II

May I have this Dance? Channeling Lawrence Welk, a-vone and a-two...some of my favorite waltzes will be presented: "Margaret's Waltz" and "River" to name a few.
LEVEL II

Open Season It's always hunting season for tunes like these: "Possum Up a Gum Stump," "Ground Hog," "Hunting Buffalo," and "Squirrel Heads in Gravy"
LEVEL II

Rollin' on a River Life preservers not necessary for this session...we'll drift along as we float tunes like "River of Dreams," "Down the River I go," and "Old Folks at Home" (after all, I AM from Florida).
LEVEL II

Rounds. Fun. Together. Now. The class title says it all! ALL LEVELS

You rock! This promises to be a class that really rocks...including "Rock the Cradle Joe," "Rock the Cradle Lucy," and more rockin' tunes.
LEVEL II

ALL ABOARD!

Everyone's repertoire needs a few train songs, so climb aboard!
LEVEL III

SOMETHING'S FISHY

Grab your rod and reel...or your dulcimer and enjoy the catch of the day!
LEVEL III

Front Porch Favorites Inspired by songs of the "Singing Family of the Cumberlands," this workshop offers fun tunes that last for generations!
LEVEL III

TAIZE

Not familiar with Taize worship music? Originally from a monastery in France, these peaceful, these meditative songs can enhance any worship service OR simply be enjoyed at any time. Short songs, repeated again and again, give it a meditative character.
